Shipping and Maritime Operations (Level 6)

UHI North, West and Hebrides

Venues

Mallaig Campus

Content

This course is designed to allow entrance to several different industries within the maritime sector.

You'll be given the grounding to enable you to progress to further qualifications which form part of deck and engineer officer training programmes in the Merchant Navy or, alternatively, to follow a career in shore based maritime operations.

These options could include aquaculture, logistics and a range of modern apprenticeships including harbour operations, deck rating and aquaculture.
