

Module 5 - Where to look for work: Using social media

Module 5 helps you to understand how different social media channels can help you to look for information on companies and jobs, as well as giving advice on making sure your own social media accounts are suitable for potential employers to see.

Work your way through the Where to look for work - using social media Module, completing the activities throughout.

There is one activity, which explains different social media channels in the context of job searching and allows you to practice searching for job and recruitment information.

Teacher/Trainer Notes

If you are a teacher or trainer delivering this module to young people, you can use the PowerPoint presentation, which includes notes, activities, tasks/discussion points and estimated timings. There are also teacher/trainer notes, which outlines delivery requirements, aims, outcomes, career management skills and senior phase criteria.

If you prefer to complete the Activity 1 Worksheet on paper, you can print this out, but you still require access to the internet to complete the activity.
