

1: All about you

This worksheet helps you to identify your skills and values. It also encourages you to think about how these relate to careers and the kinds of jobs that you might like to do.

Work your way through All about you, completing the activities.