

3: Where to find job opportunities

This worksheet helps you to understand how to identify and make contacts in relation to looking for work. This covers building up a network of people, how to make contact with recruitment agencies and employers, attending job and careers fairs and how people you already know can help you.

Work your way through Where to find job opportunities, completing the activities.