4: Recruitment and organisation websites

This worksheet introduces you to the range of websites available to look for work and explains how to use these effectively. This includes using organisation and general recruitment websites.

Work your way through Recruitment and organisation websites, completing the activities.