Content

This course is industry recognised by ScreenSkills, the industry-led skills body for the UK's screen-based industries and carries the 'ScreenSkills Select' endorsement which indicates courses best suited to prepare students for a career in the screen industries. The course has very close links with industry and with a range of practitioners involved in all aspects of television and media production. Teaching staff also have direct personal experience.

In Year 3 you will study and engage with practical and theoretical approaches to TV production, linking directly to industry contexts. There is an emphasis on team work which reflects the collaborative nature of professional practices in television employment

In Year 4 you will focus your creative and technical skills and prepare for and execute your Final Project production. You will choose an option between researching and writing an academic dissertation or engaging in industry-focused experience and career pathways.
