Content

This Politics, Philosophy and Economics (PPE) degree course was the first of its kind in Scotland, and combines three complementary subjects that give you a unique perspective on how the world works.

If you're intellectually curious and passionate about understanding the complex challenges facing modern societies and economies, our PPE course is made for you. As you study, you'll gain a broad insight into what makes the world tick, and also explore the big ideas that have helped shape Western society.
