Unlock the past and plan for your future with a History degree from the University of Stirling. Create a course combination that matches your career ambitions.

This History degree will equip you with a wide range of intellectual and personal skills. You'll gain an awareness of how different societies across the world have changed over time, by exploring areas such as Scottish, British, European, American and African history. You'll also engage with different types of history, including political, social, cultural, gender, race, computer and environmental.

Along the way, you'll enjoy the freedom to not only focus in on specialty areas of history that interest you most, but also to combine your studies with a range of other subjects that broaden your professional possibilities – from journalism to teaching, politics and sociology.
