

Facilities Management

Edinburgh Napier University

Venues

Off campus

Content

Facilities Management is a key sector of the economy and professional expertise in providing the range of FM services is in high demand.

This course, which is accredited by the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS), will equip you with knowledge of the principles and methods of successful facilities management, from technological processes to commercial considerations. This will enable you to operate professionally at a high level within the industry.

Subjects include:

Strategic Management (Built Environment and Engineering); Facilities Management 1 and 2; Law and Administration: Property and Construction; Health and Safety; Property Asset Management; Dissertation.

Start Date

September, January

Qualification

Postgraduate Master's

Study Method

Distance and Flexible learning

Award Title

MSc

Course Length

2 years

Department

Building and Surveying

Entry Requirements

A recognised 2:2 Honours degree (or other qualification at equivalent level) in any subject, or an ordinary degree and appropriate experience.

SCQF Level

11

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

«Address»

Website

www.napier.ac.uk