Content

Mental Health Nursing is a challenging yet rewarding profession where you can make a real difference to people's lives.

Stirling is a superb place for you to learn the skills of modern Mental Health Nursing. The BSc / BSc (Hons) Mental Health Nursing courses will teach you to provide care for patients with mental health conditions. Both Mental Health Nursing degrees are approved by the Nursing and Midwifery Council.

You will develop your skills and experience with placements at NHS Forth Valley and third sector partnerships. Diverse clinical placements and specialised experience include:

Adult hospital and community; Older adult hospital; Community and long term; Specialty settings such as forensics; Secure placements; Prison nursing.

You will also gain practical experience in the Clinical Skills Lab. You are assessed and supported by a team of practice assessors, practice supervisors, and academic assessors.
