

Career Guidance and Development

University of the West of Scotland

Venues

Off campus

Content

Career guidance practitioners provide accurate and relevant advice on employment, education and training opportunities to an ever-widening client group. This programme focuses on professional practice, personal reflection and critical analysis of practice.

The Masters allows guidance practitioners to undertake research and work evaluation as part of their ongoing professional development.

You can exit after 12 months with PgCert Career Guidance and Development

You can exit after 18 months with PgDip Career Guidance and Development

Start Date

September, January

Qualification

Postgraduate Master's

Study Method

Distance and Flexible learning

Award Title

MSc

Course Length

2 years

Faculty

School of Education and Social Sciences

Department

Social Sciences

Entry Requirements

You are normally expected to hold an undergraduate honours degree, or equivalent qualification, in any subject.

SCQF Level

11

Address

Paisley
Renfrewshire
PA1 2BE

Website

www.uws.ac.uk