

Fabrication and Welding (Level 5)

West Lothian College

Content

Practical, one-year course for those wanting to work in the fabrication and welding industry. There are opportunities in oil- and gas-related industries and manufacturers of metal parts and equipment.

This course offers comprehensive training in the three primary welding processes: MMA (Manual Metal Arc); MIG (Metal Inert Gas); TIG (Tungsten Inert Gas).

Start Date

August

Qualification

NC

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Engineering

Entry Requirements

Subjects at National 4 including Maths. Interview and aptitude test.

SCQF Level

5

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

NC Level 6 and HNC/D is possible.

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

Almondvale Crescent
Livingston
West Lothian
EH54 7EP

Website

www.west-lothian.ac.uk