

Business Administration

University of Strathclyde

Content

On joining the programme, you'll be given a recommended study timetable which allows you to complete the Strathclyde MBA within 3 years. It aims to provide you with an ideal balance of home study, attendance at weekend schools and intensive seminars in Glasgow. These intensive seminars require compulsory attendance and we would expect students who follow the standard three-year timetable to attend around five seminars per year.

If you wanted to fast-track and complete the Strathclyde MBA in less than 3 years, the support team can suggest an alternative study schedule. Alternatively, if you'd like to take a bit longer to complete your MBA, studies of up to a maximum of 6 years will be accommodated.

You can exit after stage 1 with PgDip Business Administration.
