International Business with a Modern Language

University of Strathclyde

Content

You will study International Business, French or Spanish, and a business subject of your choice. Your choice of business subjects includes Business Analysis and Technology, Business Enterprise, Economics, Finance, Hospitality and Tourism Management, Human Resource Management, and Marketing.

In Year 1 you will study a range of business subjects along with an introduction to international business, before choosing a business subject to study from Year 2 onwards.

You will also take the Management Development Programme in Years 1 to 3. This connecting module brings together learning from your other subjects to work on real business problems in student project teams.

In Year 4 you will complete an international experience which is normally a period of work or study in the language you are studying.

In Year 5 you will continue studying your chosen business subject and language, in addition to undertaking a Masters dissertation.
