You choose basic classes in business and other disciplines, alongside the Business School's Management Development Programme. You'll study a wide variety of subjects and create a curriculum to suit your interests and needs.

You also have the opportunity to try new subjects, some of which you won't have experienced at school or college. At the beginning of Year 2, you choose two subjects to continue studying in Years 2 and 3. You'll also select a third, 'minor' subject and take further Management Development skills classes.
