

Social Sciences

West Lothian College

Content

This course is for those who want to learn about competing views, perspectives, theories and evidence in social science subjects such as psychology, sociology and philosophy. You will explore the historical development of these subject areas and investigate specific topics and apply your knowledge.

The course includes:

Psychology; Sociology; Criminology; Research methodology; Variety of other units.

Start Date

August

Qualification

HNC

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Social Science

Entry Requirements

2 relevant Highers (1 at B) including English. Entry is by interview.

SCQF Level

7

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

Progression to HND or degree courses in psychology, sociology, economics or a variety of other social science oriented degrees such as criminology at another further or higher education institution.

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

Almondvale Crescent
Livingston
West Lothian
EH54 7EP

Website

www.west-lothian.ac.uk