

Introduction to Psychology and Social Sciences

Argyll College UHI

Venues

Arran Centre
Campbeltown Centre
Dunoon Centre
Helensburgh Centre
Islay Centre
Lochgilphead Centre and CERC
Oban Centre
Rothesay Centre
Tobermory Centre

Content

This course is suitable for all learners with an interest in finding out more about the human mind and behaviour, and how interaction with others shapes social behaviour - 'Why we say and do the things we do'. You may have little or no prior experience of studying social sciences, but a genuine interest in human behaviour and life experience will provide a good foundation for study.

Find out more about the human mind and behaviour, and how interaction with others shapes social behaviour.

Start Date

Please contact your local centre for more information on start date.

Qualification

Other

Study Method

Distance and Flexible learning
Part time (evening)

Course Length

30 hours

Department

Humanities

Entry Requirements

Relevant courses at National 4

SCQF Level

5

Progression Routes

NC Social Sciences course

Address

West Bay
Dunoon
PA23 7HP

Website

www.argyll.uhi.ac.uk