Content

Personal development planning is increasingly used by individuals, in a wide range of occupations, to keep their personal and job related knowledge, skills and expertise up to date. One of the particular qualities a potential employer will look for is your ability to manage your own learning and development.

Completing this unit will help you to demonstrate to yourself and to your employer that you are capable of doing this. It will help you to clarify and achieve your personal and career aims, and will complement your HN study programme whilst supporting the development of a wide range of transferable skills.
