Plumbing (City and Guilds) Diploma Level 2

South Lanarkshire College

Content

This City and Guilds Diploma in Plumbing is suitable for those who wish to follow this as a career. This course introduces learners to general workplace health and safety, plumbing skills and the safe use of hand-tools and equipment, In addition, this Diploma develops knowledge and understanding of plumbing; practical, technical and transferable skills; oral, written and evaluation abilities; resource management; problem solving and planning; organisational and communication skills.

Subjects Include:
health and safety in building services; common plumbing services; domestic cold water services; domestic hot water services; central heating systems; drainage systems; building service; communication; electrical principles; scaffold tower erection; domestic gas principals;principles and requirements of environmental technology systems.

Start Date

August

Qualification

Other

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Construction Management

Entry Requirements

No formal entry requirements.

SCQF Level

5

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

Modern Apprenticeship

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse» «htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

College Way
East Kilbride
G75 0NE

Website

www.slc.ac.uk