Content

If you have a passion for working with children and aspire to positively impact their early years, this HNC Childhood Practice is the ideal course for you. This course will provide you with a comprehensive understanding of working with children and their families. It will support you in developing the required knowledge, theory and skills aligning with Scottish Social Services Codes of Practice and Health and Social Care Standards.

You will be supported in developing an understanding of the principles, values and essential skills that underpin practitioners everyday practice, along with knowledge and understanding of current initiatives and strategies within the early years sector ensuring that you have up to date and relevant experience such as Forest Kindergarten.

You'll explore legislation, policies and frameworks, theoretical concepts and the vital role and responsibilities of a practitioner. Through topics such as the vital role of play in children's development, holistic development, wellbeing and safeguarding as well as modern family issues, collaboration and ethical dilemmas.

HNC Childhood Practice is a nationally recognised professional qualification. If you achieve this qualification, you will be eligible for registration with the Scottish Social Services Council (SSSC) as a Practitioner, which is an essential requirement for a variety of roles within the Early Years sector.
