

Applied Economics

University of Strathclyde

Content

The MSc Applied Economics focuses on developing your technical and analytical skills alongside your practical experience of how these skills are used to solve real-world economic problems and inform decision-making in a variety of environments. This unique feature sets it apart from other degrees in economics.

You'll gain knowledge and an understanding of the core principles of economic analysis, and the experience in how to apply them.

You'll acquire skills in economics, data analysis and modelling techniques, as well as key transferable skills in leadership, project management, problem-solving, communication and negotiating that, are sought after by employers.

The programme has been designed in consultation with key employers of our graduates, as well as the business, consulting and policy communities for the aspiring professional economist. This means that what you learn on the course is exactly what employers look for when recruiting new economists.

Start Date

September

Qualification

Postgraduate Master's

Study Method

Part time (day)

Award Title

MSc

Course Length

24 - 36 months

Faculty

Strathclyde Business School

Department

Economics

Entry Requirements

A good Honours degree in any subject.

SCQF Level

11

Progression Routes

«ProgressionRoutes»

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

16 Richmond Street
Glasgow
Glasgow City
G1 1XQ

Website

www.strath.ac.uk