Holyrood Campus

Content

The MSc Inclusive Education has been designed for graduates who want to make a difference to the lives of children and young people in education. The distinctive approach presents a re-imagined future for learners and teachers, where responding to human diversity is recognised as the point, not the problem, of education.

The programme has specific pathways for Postgraduate Diploma (visually impaired learners), Postgraduate Diploma (deaf learners) and Postgraduate Diploma (bilingual learners).

You can exit at the end of 9 months with PgDip Inclusive Education.
