Content

The HNC Social Services program is tailored for motivated and compassionate individuals dedicated to making a significant impact on the lives of society's most vulnerable.

Through a blended learning approach that combines practical experience, research, and academic study, you will develop the critical skills and knowledge required to support individuals in leading fulfilling and independent lives.

This course provides a pathway to employment in social care and lays the foundation for further studies in social work or related fields, empowering students to contribute effectively and empathetically to community, public, and private support services.
