

Professional Practice

University of Strathclyde

Content

The course is flexible in that it offers you the opportunity to study either face-to-face or online through the modules chosen. It also enables you to engage in your own research through the production of a 15,000-word dissertation.

This course gives you an ideal opportunity to upgrade your Masters-level qualifications into a recognised and respected award.

In your first year, you'll study Research Methods and Reasoning. This class will introduce you to research methods and equip you to undertake your dissertation in Year 2.

You'll also study an optional module which can be chosen from areas such as inclusion, early career development or literacy.
