

Publishing Studies

University of Stirling

Venues

Stirling Campus

Content

The Stirling Centre for International Publishing and Communication at the University of Stirling is a world-leading centre for postgraduate publishing studies, offering expertise in contemporary and historical publishing in the UK and beyond.

The MRes Publishing Studies is a research preparation Master's course that offers students the opportunity for tailor-made Master's study in the field of publishing studies. It also offers the opportunity to prepare for a PhD through concentrated research with a specialism in publishing.

The course helps you to develop an analytical and research-driven approach towards publishing. It also offers maximum flexibility so that you can tailor the course to fit your research interests and professional practice. Graduates from the MRes course often go on to further study, such as a pursuing a PhD through concentrated research with a specialism in publishing.

Start Date

September

Qualification

Postgraduate Master's

Study Method

Part time (day)

Award Title

MRes

Course Length

27 months

Department

Arts and Humanities

Entry Requirements

A minimum of a second class Honours degree (2:1 preferred) or equivalent in a relevant subject. Applicants without these formal qualifications but with significant appropriate/relevant work/life experience are encouraged to apply. Applicants should submit a research proposal of 2,000 words.

SCQF Level

11

Address

Stirling
Bridge Of Allan
Stirling District
FK9 4LA

Website

www.stir.ac.uk