

Audio and Visual Design (Level 5)

Glasgow Kelvin College

Venues

Easterhouse Campus

Content

The course consists of National Progression Awards in Music Technology and Digital Media and includes undertaking live sound and video at events throughout Glasgow. There will be lectures from invited speakers from the Creative Industries.

A wide range of subjects covering:

Still Image Acquisition; Still Image Editing; Audio Acquisitions; Music Tech Skills; Music tech in context; Video Acquisitions; Appreciation of Music; MIDI Sequencing; Creative Project; Sound Reinforcement; Sound Design; Sound Production.

Start Date

August

Qualification

NQ

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Sound Recording

Entry Requirements

4 subjects at National 5 preferably including English and Maths. Entry subject to interview and written test.

SCQF Level

5

Progression Routes

Successful completion of the NC can lead to further study on an HNC/D in an area like Sound Production, Music Business and possibly Music (if you play an instrument).

Address

123 Flemington Street
Glasgow
Glasgow City
G21 4TD

Website

www.glasgowkelvin.ac.uk