Business

University of Strathclyde

Content

Studying a BA Hons in Business at the University of Strathclyde, you'll be learning at a multi-award-winning academic institution.

The four-year structure of the course allows you to choose the ideal combination of courses for your chosen career path. You also have the opportunity to apply for a period of exchange in Year 3.

In Year 1 you will study a range of business subjects, providing you with a foundation in business before specialising in later years. In addition, you will take a module on Academic Skills.

The final module in Year 1 is the Management Development Programme, which you will also take in Years 2 and 3. This connecting module brings together learning from your other subjects to work on real business problems in student project teams.

In Year 2 you will choose three subjects from the list below, before focussing on two subjects in Year 3. You will then specialise in Single or Joint Honours in Year 4.

You will also undertake an Honours dissertation.

Subject combinations: Accounting; Business Analysis and Technology; Business Enterprise; Economics; Hospitality and Tourism Management; Human Resource Management; Marketing.
