Content

You will develop your English language skills to a high level and carry out intensive study and analysis of English literature.

Six additional evening classes will be added on an alternative evening between January and April to facilitate the preparation of your coursework Folio. These will take the form of Folio workshops and allow you supervised production time.

You will be required to submit a coursework Portfolio of Writing which contributes to 30% of your final mark.

The course also consists of an internally assessed Performance-spoken language task.

You will also take the external examination in May.
