Content

If you want to explore what's happening around you in your home, in your street, in society and in the world, then this is the course for you.

Have you always wanted to find the answers to the bigger, burning issues in society? Do you want to find out what makes people tick and what makes the world go round? Then you're a natural social scientist! This course will help to you analyse and evaluate not just the answers, but the questions too. Hot topics you'll look at include why people commit crimes, can we ever be truly equal, does the media indulge or challenge stereotypes, plus loads more. You'll find it contemporary, fascinating and full of lively debate and discussion!
