Content

This UAL Awarding Body course, delivered at Moray School of Art, is designed to help you develop the skills and understanding needed to create a strong visual portfolio for further study.

Working with a range of materials and techniques that allow you to discover what inspires you creatively, you will:
gain experience in life drawing, photography, painting, digital work, sculpture and 2D or 3D design learn how to research and reflect on the work of other artists, supported by talks from visiting artists and gallery visits choose your own project themes and build a portfolio that reflects your personal interests develop the knowledge and creative confidence needed to progress within art and design grow your self-belief as you explore a range of creative approaches

Providing the perfect opportunity for school leavers or mature learners, this course offers an engaging programme of external speakers, industry relevant projects and, when possible, sector specific field trips.
