

An Introduction to The World of Computing

Glasgow Clyde College

Venues

Langside Campus

Content

An Introduction to the World of Computing is designed to give you an insight into this exciting and dynamic subject area and the careers you can successfully follow.

Studying the subjects of Cyber Security, Coding, Mobile App development, Web development, Hardware, Software and Networking, you will be given a broad understanding of each topic with the view to specialising as you progress to the next level of study.

This course requires no previous qualifications or experience and you will undertake the NPA in Digital Literacy and IT for Employability from the British Computer Society.

Start Date

January

Qualification

NQ

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

20 weeks

Department

Computing

Entry Requirements

No formal entry requirements. Entry may be subject to an interview.

SCQF Level

5

Progression Routes

NC Computing and Information Technology

Address

690 Mossbank Drive
Glasgow
Glasgow City
G52 3AY

Website

www.glasgowclyde.ac.uk