Content

Over 18 weeks you will gain the underpinning knowledge and theory that will allow you to progress to a full-time early years course. By undertaking this short full-time course in advance of the SVQ or NC, you will have more time devoted in class to develop your knowledge, at a pace that is achievable for those with few or no prior qualifications. Aside from the vocational learning, you will gain sound academic skills such as the use of technology, report writing and group work. This will ensure you enter the next phase of your education as a confident and competent learner.
