

Legal Services

South Lanarkshire College

Content

This course builds on the HNC, and prepares students for a career in the well paid and rewarding legal and criminology sectors. The course leads directly to degree level study at our partner universities.

You'll learn about conveyancing, legal services, accounting and tax for executives as well as gaining practical skills such as drafting and legal research. The course is endorsed by the Law Society of Scotland and the Scottish Paralegal Association. You'll visit courts and have a variety of guest speakers from different legal backgrounds.
