Nursing (Mental Health)

Open University in Scotland

Content

Nursing is one of the most rewarding professions, placing you at the heart of patient care and wellbeing. This BSc (Honours) Nursing offers Mental Health Nursing as one of several specialisms, combining practice-based and online learning to equip you with the knowledge, confidence and skills needed to make a real difference. You'll study four fields of nursing practice before specialising in Mental Health. On completion, you'll be eligible to join the Nursing and Midwifery Council (NMC) register as a qualified nurse. With employer support, the OU enables you to study alongside your role, applying your learning directly in practice.

Start Date

October, February, March

Qualification

Degree

Study Method

Online learning

Award Title

BSc Hons

Course Length

Flexible

Faculty

General

Department

Health and Social Care

Entry Requirements

You must be working in a relevant environment, have the support of your employer, and meet the requirements Specified by the NMC. You must have National 4 English and Maths or Applications of Maths.

You must be sponsored by your employer (you can't fund yourself on this programme) and working in healthcare practice in a caring role. All applicants will undergo an interview and assessment of personal values as required by the NMC. Good health evidenced through self-declaration of health status, occupational health screening, review of previous sickness and absence record and two references, one of which must be from your current employer.

Computer and internet access required.

SCQF Level

10

Progression Routes

«ProgressionRoutes»

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse» «htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

10 Drumsheugh Gardens
Edinburgh
EH3 7QJ

Website

www.open.ac.uk/scotland/