

Intermediate Certificate: Access to Computer Games, Web Development and Animation

Fife College

Venues

Dunfermline (Halbeath) Campus

Content

This course provides an exciting opportunity for school Winter Leavers and returning learners to access the world of computer animation, games, mobile apps and website design and development.

It provides an introduction to a range of computing skills including computer Programming using CSS, HTML5 and JavaScript; 3D computer modelling and animation using Autodesk 3DS max and computer games development using game maker and unity. You will create computer graphics for websites and games using Adobe Photoshop and design user interfaces for games and mobile apps.

Content:

Computer games design; Computer graphics; Computer modelling and animation; Computer scripting and programming; Website design and development; Project planning and collaborative working;
Core Skills in information technology

Start Date

February

Qualification

Other

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

6 months

Department

Digital, Computing and Cyber

Entry Requirements

No formal entry requirements, though candidates should be able to demonstrate familiarity with Computing, Maths, Art and Craft subjects and would likely have studied these at National 4 level or above. Interview.

SCQF Level

5

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

Relevant NC course.

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

Pittsburgh Road
Dunfermline
KY11 8DY

Website

www.fife.ac.uk