Police Studies

Dundee and Angus College

Venues

Gardyne Campus

Content

HNC Police Studies will provide an understanding of issues relevant to policing and develop understanding of the skills and capabilities required.

Topics covered: Scottish legal system & criminal law; criminology; physical exercise & programming; communication; ICT; customer care; research; sociology and personal development. You will develop planning, communication, interpretation and research skills.

This 15 credit course may allow articulation into a range of 1st or 2nd year undergraduate degrees and a wide range of careers including the Police Service, Criminal Justice System, Scottish Legal System, Armed Forces and Prison service, Social Services, youth or community work, and voluntary work.

Start Date

August

Qualification

HNC

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Social Science

Entry Requirements

2 relevant Highers; or 1 Higher and another relevant national qualification at SCQF Level 6. Interview.

SCQF Level

7

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse» «htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

«Address»

Website

www.dundeeandangus.ac.uk