

Counselling

Glasgow Clyde College

Venues

Anniesland Campus

Content

This course is designed to provide the opportunity to further develop knowledge, skills and attitudes relevant to the theory and practice of working with people and counselling within an encouraging and supportive environment. The course is designed to integrate theory, practice, reflection and self development.

Subjects include: The Three Stage Integrative Model; Humanistic counselling approaches; Behavioural and cognitive counselling approaches; Psychodynamic counselling approaches; Understanding addictive behaviours; Working with addictive behaviours; Working with substance abuse; Group counselling skills; Theory loss, grief and bereavement; Graded unit.

Non-assessed practical experience within a helping agency or organisation that allows for the supervised practice of counselling skills is encouraged during the course.

Start Date

August

Qualification

HNC

Study Method

Part time (evening)

Course Length

1 year

Department

Social Care and Counselling

Entry Requirements

NQ Social Care (Level 6) or other relevant national qualifications at SCQF Level 6, or a suitable psychology qualification. Interview.

SCQF Level

7

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

The HNC can lead to work within an agency or organisation where counselling skills are required or progression to further study in psychology or counselling.

Candidates who successfully complete this course are offered the opportunity to apply for Higher National Diploma: Counselling.

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

690 Mosspark Drive
Glasgow
Glasgow City
G52 3AY

Website

www.glasgowclyde.ac.uk