

Contemporary Art Practice

University of Edinburgh

Venues

Central Campus

Content

This studio-based programme offers a constructive, critical environment for artists wishing to develop their practice. Students produce artworks in a range of media, using paint, sound, performance, photography, video, sculpture and digital animation.

You will receive a studio space and a studio tutor. Teaching is primarily by one-to-one tutorials and mixed year group critiques with a year-round programme of visiting artists.

Courses examine key contemporary art developments and ways in which artists can self organise, collaborate and curate opportunities to exhibit.
