

Museum and Heritage Studies

University of St Andrews

Content

The MLitt in Museum and Heritage Studies prepares students for employment in museums with broad training in all types of museums, galleries and other heritage facilities, and is aimed at students wanting to start a career in museum or gallery work, or for those looking for a mid-career change.

The programme provides a grounding in both theoretical and practical elements of museum studies while offering the opportunity for specialism.

The degree provides broad training, covering all types of museums, galleries and heritage facilities, and includes the principles of conservation, museum education, exhibition planning and design, and management.

You can exit early with the PgDip Museum and Heritage Studies.
