Content

The MSc Multichannel Retail Marketing will provide you with a comprehensive knowledge of core marketing principles, along with an additional focus on multichannel retailing, that will prepare you for a career in retailing and marketing management. The course has been designed to develop your knowledge and understanding of multichannel practices and their strategic importance to businesses as varied as retailers, manufacturers, or brand owners, as they consider the many routes by which they interact with customers.

The MSc Multichannel Retail Marketing course is accredited by the Chartered Institute of Marketing (CIM). CIM accreditation means that when you successfully complete the course, it's easier to gain a Professional Diploma in Marketing. Two of the Diploma modules will be waived and to gain the CIM Professional Diploma you will only need to undertake two CIM modules rather than the usual four, giving you a competitive edge in your career.

You can exit after 6 months with the PgCert Multichannel Retail Marketing.

You can exit after 9 months with the PgDip Multichannel Retail Marketing.
