

Psychology with Criminology (Level 6)

Glasgow Clyde College

Venues

Langside Campus

Content

The NQ Psychology with Criminology is designed to give you an introduction to human behaviour and mental processes as well as the many factors that influence criminal behaviour. You will also study other social science subjects and successful completion of this course would enable you to achieve an NC Social Sciences Level 6.

The course includes National units in a selection of psychology, criminology and social sciences subjects. The range of subjects offered include the following:

Psychology (you will sit the Higher exam in this subject); Crime in the community; Crime scenes
Crime in society; Forensic psychology; Nature and extent of crime; Sociology; Modern studies

Start Date

August

Qualification

NQ

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

1 year

Department

Social Science

Entry Requirements

4 subjects at National 5 at A or B preferably including English and social subjects. Interview and reference.

SCQF Level

6

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

HNC Social Sciences

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

690 Mosspark Drive
Glasgow
Glasgow City
G52 3AY

Website

www.glasgowclyde.ac.uk