Content

This multi-faceted Media and Communication course will help you to develop a broad base of media skills suitable for higher education and employment in the modern, convergent media and communications industries.

Each tutor has a wide variety of media experience, and you'll gain even more knowledge from expert media guest speakers, visits, field trips and professional workshops.

You'll be continually assessed and will be working on industry-relevant projects, in some cases for real clients. You will be expected to conduct interviews with the public, deliver presentations, write to a professional standard and work in groups. You will be responsible for delivering the work required of you, often to a deadline.
