Business with Finance and Economics

Robert Gordon University

Content

This degree will provide you with a comprehensive grounding across the key business disciplines. In addition, you will gain specialist understanding of how to interpret communicate and apply financial and economic information to improve strategic decision making in business.

The course will provide you with the tools and techniques to predict and respond to global economic shifts such as those seen during the financial crisis or the more recent COVID-19 pandemic. The finance aspects of the course will prepare you to work in areas such as financial services, insurance or within a range of business or public sector organisations.

The course is part of the BA (Hons) Business and Management programme delivered at Aberdeen Business School.
