

Applied Sociology

Robert Gordon University

Content

YEAR 1

Completed via BA (Hons) Applied Social Sciences. You will explore introductory social science theories and applications including elements of psychology, sociology, research methods and politics.

YEAR 2

Completed via BA (Hons) Applied Social Sciences. Studying Social Sciences abroad or if not taking this route, you will build upon the skills developed in year one by exploring the topics in greater depth and introducing specialist modules.

YEAR 3

You will specialise in sociology modules. Through the completion of several core topics, you advance your knowledge and experience of sociology, sociology research and how these can be applied to contemporary, real-world issues.

YEAR 4

You can choose modules that reflect your interest in various areas of sociology. This year also includes a core Dissertation module, which allows you to study, in-depth, an area of relevant and personal interest.
