

Entry into Work in Childcare

New College Lanarkshire

Venues

Motherwell Campus

Content

This programme is designed to prepare candidates to enter the world of work within a Childcare Setting. It aims to enable learners to be successful in making, and sustaining, the transition from non-work environments into employment or possibly to progress on to Further Education. The Entry to Work in Childcare gives learners a recognisable qualification, to show employers they have underpinning knowledge to prepare them for the workplace.
