

Carpentry and Joinery: Intermediate

Borders College

Venues

Scottish Borders Campus

Content

Diploma in bench joinery at SCQF level 5 (City and Guilds 6806-26)

This course is designed as an extension to our full time Carpentry and Joinery: Introduction course and focusses on developing bench joinery skills. Underpinning knowledge includes Health, Safety and Welfare, Principles of building construction and Information and communication in the construction industry.

Practical elements include setting up and operating a circular saw, setting out, marking out and manufacture of bench joinery products.

Start Date

August

Qualification

Other

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

36 weeks

Department

Construction

Entry Requirements

Subject to a satisfactory interview and skills test.

SCQF Level

5

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Progression Routes

On gaining employment, progression onto Carpentry and Joinery: Modern Apprenticeship Year 1.

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

Nether Road
Galashiels
The Scottish Borders
TD1 3HE

Website

www.borderscollege.ac.uk