

Introduction to Computing and Digital Media

Edinburgh College

Venues

Milton Road Campus

Content

This introduction course is designed for those looking to improve their creative digital skills. You will gain knowledge and skills in different areas of computing which will be useful if you are looking to progress to other Computing or Digital Media courses at Edinburgh College. You will develop skills in the basics of Microsoft Office as well as complete projects in digital media and programming.

What you will learn:

Digital skills using Microsoft Office; Basic programming skills using Scratch; Digital media practical skills using a range of equipment; Basic digital media editing software skills in the areas of photography and image editing, video, animation and audio; Independent and group working skills.

Start Date

August

Qualification

Other

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

20 weeks

Department

Routes into Education of Employment

Entry Requirements

No formal entry requirements. Interview. Portfolio.

SCQF Level

4

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

«Address»

Website

www.edinburghcollege.ac.uk