

Computer Networking

Edinburgh College

Venues

Milton Road Campus

Content

This course incorporates the industry-recognised CISCO CCNA (CISCO Certified Network Associate) curriculum.

During this course, you will develop an essential understanding of networking for home and networking for small businesses. You will learn about computer networking and be introduced to routing and switching in the enterprise as well as designing and supporting computer networks.

This course is highly regarded and well-recognised in the industry and is sought after by employers.

You will learn:

Computer networking technologies; Routing; Switching; Internet working; Basic software development; Computer hardware and software installation fundamentals; Troubleshooting; Private cloud virtualisation; Server administration; Data science; Digital forensics; Ethical hacking.

Start Date

August

Qualification

HND

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

2 years

Department

Computing

Entry Requirements

3 Highers including Maths, Computing Science or another science subject at B, or relevant national qualifications at SCQF Level 6. Interview and skills test.

SCQF Level

8

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»

«htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

«Address»

Website

www.edinburghcollege.ac.uk