Introduction to Cookery and Hospitality Skills

Edinburgh College

Venues

Granton Campus
Midlothian Campus
Milton Road Campus

Content

This course is ideal if you are looking to start your career within the Hospitality/Cookery Industry – it will give you the opportunity to try out both Cookery and work in our new College Cafe before deciding on your career path.

The course will introduce you to a variety of techniques needed to work in a professional kitchen and a Cafe – you will develop your skills in areas such as: Food and beverage service skills; Kitchen skills; Food hygiene; Working as part of a team.

What you will learn:

How to handle and operate kitchen equipment; Health and safety within a kitchen environment; Cookery processes; Training in a realistic cafe; Working as part of a team; Barista skills; Time management.

Start Date

August

Qualification

Other

Study Method

Full time

Course Length

6 months

Department

Professional Cookery, Hospitality and Events

Entry Requirements

No formal entry requirements. You must be able to work to SCQF Level 3 and have an interest in working within the hospitality and catering industry. You should demonstrate good communication skills.

SCQF Level

3

SCQF Points

«SCQFPoints»

Combination Courses

«htmlCombinationCourse»   «htmlCombinationUCASCode»

Address

«Address»

Website

www.edinburghcollege.ac.uk