Content

If you have an HNC Beauty Therapy qualification, you may be considered for direct entry into HND Beauty Therapy 2nd year. This will be dependent on the units you hold and the places available.

In year 2 a large part of the course focuses on competence in the use of advanced facial and body treatments such as body toning treatments and spa treatments.

This is a well-established, recognised qualification understood and well-respected by employers in the occupational area.

Year 2 of the HND Beauty Therapy course focuses on developing your competence in the use of advanced facial and body techniques such as cosmetic peels and spa therapy treatments.
